Testing Results Being Compiled

During the past three years the Freshman Orientation Program for entering NWMSC students has included the SCAT and STEP battery developed by the Educational Testing Service.

The local test results have now been compiled into a set of local percentile norms for use in the counseling program of this college. The results will be used as a basis for comparison with the national norms of entering college freshmen.

1900 Have Taken Tests

During the three-year period, approximately 1900 entering freshmen have taken the tests. Separate distributions and cumulative frequencies of students' scores were made for each test.

The most obvious conclusions that can be drawn from the comparison are that in mathematics and science as well as in social science, our entering students compare very favorably with the national norms.

In reading and writing our students fall below the national average. These conclusions are borne out by the results of the Verbal and Quantitative subtests of the SCAT test which is basically an academic aptitude test indicating a predicting basis for the possibility of college success in either of these areas.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

To Cut . . . or not to Cut . . .

The school year is slowly but surely drawing to a close. And as this semester fades away so do many good attendance records. Now that warm weather is here it is sometimes difficult to talk yourself into going to class. But we must realize that some instructors grade-down sharply for absences.

Creates Problem

The outstanding problem on this campus about this time of the year concerns finals and attendance. And the bad part about attendance stems from the fact that most students are not aware of whether or not their instructors weigh this in with the test grades and term papers. Some instructors will inform their classes at the first of the semester concerning the importance of attendance, others will not.

Students who attend their classes regularly believe that this should be taken into consideration when the instructor makes up his final grades. Many other students say that they paid for the class and it should be up to them—if they want to go or not.

Whether or not instructors should weigh attendance in with the determination of a grade is debatable. It is their decision to make and our job to conform to the decision.

Letter to the Editor . . .

This letter is in reply to the editorial on the "suitcase student" in the April 26, 1961 issue of the Northwest Missourian.

I see no reason for any official spokesman for the college to discriminate against any group in the college which brings much credit, and certainly no discredit to our school. I feel that the commuting faction of our school could favorably compare grade averages with any group on campus which is similar in size.

If campus activity is a criterion of a "good" college student, may I point out that one of our number is on a second round team in the College Bowl, that another is a member of the varsity tennis team, and that fraternity members are not unknown among us.

A point stressed in the "suitcase student" article was our lack of support for the "big dances." May I only say that the term "big dances" is a misnomer. Most of us are adults. When we go to dance, we like to be able to sit and relax at a table with something to drink. Sitting around a gymnasium in a row of chairs as though we were attending Professor Somebody's Saturday afternoon dance class is not our idea of a "big dance." I realize that anything stronger than soda pop is taboo on state property, and I agree that the age of many of the students in attendance makes liquor illegal, but really . . . not even a Coke.

My associates and I are commuters for various reasons, some for financial reasons, some for family reasons, some because they do not wish to submit to the restrictions of campus life, and some because they simply like living where they do. A high percentage of the commuters are married, or are veterans, or hold full-time jobs, or have other family responsibilities. Most of us are 23 years of age or more. We have become accustomed to living our own lives, and doing what we think will most nearly provide us with the life we

Carol Gress, senior,

Gary Clifton, senior

Fannie Kavanaugh, junior

Thinclads Trim Tarkio 85-51

The Northwest Missouri State Bearcats sailed to an 85-51 decision over Tarkio College in a dual meet held at Tarkio, Missouri, on April 28.

Maryville State captured 11 of the possible 16 first places and showed tremendous depth by placing in all other events. Larry Sommer, Maryville distance runner who has taken nine firsts for the last four contests, led the meet scoring with 15 points by winning the 880-yard, mile, and two-mile runs. A second multiple winner, Chris West, took firsts in the high jump and the 120-yard high hurdles for another 10 points.

Other firsts for the Bearcats were landed by Tillie Porterfield, 100-yard dash; Ken Carver, shot-put; Rich Kaspersen, 440-yard dash; Bill Meyers, javelin; Mickey Howard, 220-yard low hurdles; and to the 880-yard relay team.

Three of the event winners from Maryville were recently named to a track honor-roll for outstanding college performances in the Northwest Missouri area. They are Larry Sommer, 880-yard run; Bill Meyers, javelin; and Chris West, high jump.

Two Meets Remain

Having tangled with Peru State College yesterday, only two meets remain before the thinclads. Friday and Saturday the team will compete in the Graceland Relays at Lamoni, Iowa; May 12-13 will mark the climactic M.I.A.A. Conference meet at Cape Girardeau. Both should prove to be displays of competition at its best.

'Cats Blast Warrensburg

A 21-hit barrage was fired Saturday afternoon by the Northwest State College Bearcat baseball team as it battered Warrensburg, 13-1 and 5-4, in a twin-bill on the MSC diamond.

The 'Cats had everything their own way in the first game as they backed up Bill Ludwig's masterful 3-hitter with 11 hits, including two home runs. In the second game, it took a two-out, fourth inning rally to notch the win.

A four-year skein over the Bearcats by Warrensburg pitcher Kubli was broken in the first game as the 'Cats defeated him for the first time in six games.

Leading the way for MSC in the opener were Howard Rolfe, Jim Kloewer, Dick Clark and Ludwig with two hits each.

Rodney Esch scattered eight hits in the nightcap as the 'Cats raised their record to 3-5 for the season, and gave Warrensburg its second loss against five wins.

It was sweet revenge for the 'Cats lost a doubleheader to Warrensburg Apr. 15 at Warrensburg, 2-12 and 1-4.

The Bearcats host William Jewell Thursday afternoon in a twin-bill and Coach Burton Richey will take his B squad to Creston Friday for a game with the Creston Junior College team.

Chalk Talk

Bob Cobb

Last week we mentioned that Bearcat baseballer Bill Ludwig almost had a no-hit baseball game to his credit up at Peru. Dale Cramer reports that Danny Sims hurling for the Vets team in intramural softball garnered one of these pitching masterpieces last Tuesday. Unfortunately we don't have an Intramural Hall of Fame to instill Danny in, but we congratulate him for pitching a softball no-hitter.

Where's The Fans?

The lack of attendance at the recent Bearcat home baseball game was somewhat surprising. The 'Cat baseballers need your support and encouragement. At the next home game with Warrensburg May 8, let's go out and boost the 'Cats to a diamond victory.

The 'cat golfers won their first meet of the season defeating William Jewell on a tough Excelsior Springs course Tuesday, April 24. Even though this is the first season of varsity golf competition for some time, it seems that our golfers haven't let their irons gather any dust.

In the statistics department, are you aware that Bearcat varsity wrestlers have won 29 out of thirty-three matches over a three year period? The 'Cat grapplers have placed second for three straight years in AAU tournament competition.

Track Troubles

Despite fine individual performances by dash-man Tillie Porterfield and high jumper Chris West, the Bearcat trackmen have had their troubles in capturing meet titles. With several sophomore lettermen, the 'Cats possibly have not reached their season's potential.

Perhaps they have been affected by the "Sophomore slump" or "Sophomore Jinx"

Bearcat Netters Dump Peru, 7-0
